An aerial photograph of the Library of Congress - Adams Building. The building is a large, multi-story structure with a light-colored facade and a flat roof. It features a series of vertical fins or columns that create a rhythmic pattern across its exterior. The building is situated in an urban environment, with other buildings visible in the background. In the foreground, there is a green lawn and a curved path. A small American flag is visible on the left side of the image. The text "Library of Congress - Adams Building" is overlaid on the image in a white font.
